

PAST SIMPLE

Fill in the correct past simple form of the verbs in parentheses:

A Day at the Park

Last weekend, Sarah and her friends decided (decide) to spend the day at the park. They met (meet) at the entrance early in the morning and brought (bring) their picnic baskets with them. The weather was (be) perfect for a day outdoors.

First, they played (play) frisbee for a while. Sarah threw (throw) the frisbee so high that it got (get) stuck in a tree. After that, they walked (walk) around the park and took (take) many photos. Everyone enjoyed (enjoy) the beautiful scenery.

At noon, they sat (sit) down under a large oak tree and had (have) lunch. They shared (share) sandwiches, fruits, and snacks. After lunch, they relaxed (relax) on the grass and chatted (chat) about their plans for the upcoming holidays.

In the afternoon, they explored (explore) a small pond at the edge of the park. They saw (see) ducks swimming and fed (feed) them breadcrumbs. Before they left (leave), they promised (promise) to come back soon.

By the end of the day, everyone felt (feel) tired but happy. They said (say) goodbye and went (go) home with wonderful memories of a lovely day at the park.
